Diamond Standard Lifetime Warranty

We hold ourselves to a Diamond Standard and our warranty is no exception – it's simple, clear, and brilliant. Our products are designed to last a lifetime. If your Barra riflescope is ever damaged, we will either repair or replace it with an equivalent or better product. This warranty is fully transferrable. * Loss, theft, intentional damage, and any cosmetic damage that does not affect the product's performance are not covered. Thank you for choosing Barra products and services. Please go to www.barraoptics.com and give us your feedback so that we can continue improving our products.
